Belgium Trip

On Friday 13th November, 14 excited Year 8 students were gathered at the college at 5:30am for the start of a long, exciting journey to Belgium and back.

Taking the Eurotunnel to Calais then on to Belgium, the first stop was the impressive Passchendaele Memorial Museum, which has uniforms, weapons, artillery and memorabilia from World War I, before going down into the living quarters and trenches from the famous battle which took place there.

After the museum, the students were taken to picture-post-card town of Ypres, for lunch and, of course, a trip to one of the famous Belgian chocolate shops. We were also able to visit the famous Menin Gate Memorial, which displayed the names of the 55,000 British soldiers who fell in battle, but whose bodies were never recovered for burial. There was also a visit to a waffle shop, which served waffles topped with Belgian chocolate sauce.

Once we returned to the minibus, the next stop was the Cité Europe shopping centre in Calais for the students to practise their French, before taking the Eurotunnel back. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the day and made some long-lasting memories of Belgium.
